

PROGRAM OPENING JEROME BRUNER LIBRARY

Wednesday January 8, 2020

13:00 Reception with coffee & tea

13:30 Welcome by Caroline Rowland, Managing Director MPI for Psycholinguistics

13:45 Pim Levelt, Director emeritus MPI for Psycholinguistics
The alpha and omega of Jerome Bruner's contributions to the Max Planck Institute for Psycholinguistics

14:30 Karin Kastens, head librarian MPI for Psycholinguistics
Cataloguing the Bruner Library treasure: Creating comprehensive records for over 3300 books

15:00 Coffee & tea

15:15 Eleanor Fox, Walter J. Derenberg Professor of Trade Regulations, New York U. School of Law
Literary Jerry and Justice

16:00 Jeremy Burman, Assistant Professor of Theory and History of Psychology, Groningen U.
An archival approach to invisible colleges: Bruner's marginalia and engagements with Piaget and Inhelder

16:45 Exploring the Jerome Bruner Library, guided by the Institute's librarians and speakers

17:15 Jamie Cohen-Cole, Associate Professor of American Studies, George Washington University
Historical research and personal libraries

17:45 General discussion: Uses of the Jerome Bruner Library, led by Willem Koops, Professor emeritus, Utrecht U.

18:30 Drinks

